

San Bernardino County Code (Chapter 4, section 33.0410) requires food workers employed in San Bernardino County to possess a valid, unexpired Food Worker Certification Card. County Code defines food workers as waiters, waitresses, bartenders, buspersons, cooks, dishwashers, hosts, hostesses, managers, meat cutters, deli person, etc.

This card must be issued by a County approved training institution. All food workers must obtain certification within fourteen (14) days of employment. Classes are available in English and Spanish.
